Course Description

In each session, learners will work on breathing exercises, vocal exercises to develop confidence and tuning, and will learn to sing for fun. Learners will sing songs from many different genres—including jazz, pop, ballads and seasonal songs. Initially, learners will sing in unison (all singing the same part) and will progress onto part singing. Learners will then perform a short concert at the end of each term and will have an opportunity to sing with a Jazz Orchestra (Linton Jazz) in a concert in March. The emphasis will be on fun, while learning to sing in tune and with confidence within a group.

Teaching/learning methods used

Demonstration, vocal exercises and practice.

Homework

None required, but practice will help to improve techniques that may not have been practiced enough during class.
