

LEARNER INFORMATION

Government legislation, introduced on 1 July 2007, places a total ban on smoking in public places; the College site has been smoke-free since September '05 - all users are required to respect this.

Data Protection

All students will be required to complete an enrolment form at their first session. Details given at that time are held on our computerised database and governed by the Data Protection Act.

Equalities Statement

The County Council operates an Equality of Opportunity Policy. We believe that everyone is entitled to learn in an environment that is free from discriminatory behaviour so that we build a learning community based on mutual respect and trust. We welcome disabled people and those with support needs, learning difficulties and medical conditions such as wheelchair users, those with mental health difficulties, epilepsy, dyslexia, D/deaf and partially sighted.

WRITING FOR PUBLICATION

LINTON VILLAGE COLLEGE

TUESDAYS from 19:00 to 21:00
COMMENCING 10 JANUARY 2012

Tutor: CLAIRE BARNABAS
£85 per 10 WEEKS

Any skills or qualifications needed for entry into class?

This course is for beginners who have always wanted to write. All that is required is enthusiasm and a passion to learn.

Course Description

A series of inspiring sessions which illuminate all aspects of creative writing including finding ideas, creating convincing characters, writing dynamic dialogue and learning how to get published.

Teaching/learning methods used

Though discussion, exercises, and example, this course will teach techniques, give you insight into creative process, and encourage you to achieve your writing goals.

There will be a short, optional assignment at the end of each week.

Progression

By the end of the course you will feel more confident to be able to write creatively.
