

From the Principal...

It was fabulous to watch such an accomplished and entertaining production of Annie involving so many members of the College last week. A massive well done to all of the cast and crew and to the Arts team that made it happen.

The feedback from yesterday's police assemblies has been very positive. It was great for our students in Years 8-11 to benefit from the national knife-education programme as part of 'Operation Spectre'. It is important that our young people are better informed about the consequences of carrying weapons and are able to make safe and responsible choices. The police will be in further contact in the coming weeks with more details about local crime issues and anti-social behaviour in surrounding villages so that you as parents/carers can be supported to safeguard your children effectively.

My role as Executive Principal involves me having oversight of all the schools in Chilford Hundred Education Trust (CHET). With developments taking place at Trust level, there have been some changes made to senior leadership roles at LVC. Mr Darby has taken up the position of Acting Vice Principal to reflect the additional operational duties he has taken on and Mrs Matarazzo has become Acting Deputy Principal for an interim period to provide more capacity to deputise for me. Their areas of responsibilities have not changed and all enquiries should continue to be communicated to my PA, Elaine.Clayton@lvc.org, so that the most appropriate member of the senior leadership team can respond.

Your child may have mentioned that we have experienced a spate of false fire alarms at the College recently. Please be assured that we are taking appropriate action to address this.

Annie

Last Saturday saw the final performance of LVC's production of 'Annie'. The four performances over three nights were the culmination of many months of hard work and dedication from all involved. Team Arts would like to say well done and thank you one more time to all of our performers, musicians, back stage crew, tech team, Friends of LVC, site team and everyone who gave their time and energy to make it the huge success that it was. Each performance was sold out and we're sure everyone went home with a huge smile on their face, bouncing out of the auditorium to 'You're Never Fully Dressed Without A Smile'! Thank you to the Linton community and parents for supporting and encouraging your children who performed brilliantly - worthy of the West End, and for helping the Arts at LVC thrive. We couldn't do it without you. We're already looking forward to planning our next events and you can keep in touch with everything that's going on via @LintonArts on Twitter. Miss Kähr

Years 10 and 11 Study Skills Evening

A reminder for parents to reserve their places at this event on Thursday 28th March by clicking on the surveymonkey link: <https://www.surveymonkey.co.uk/r/79TTNKT>.

Places are still available but are limited. Registration in advance is required. Miss Gelder

Science Week

Science Week has been underway at LVC with enthusiastic students enjoying some activities such as forensic work, science fair projects, dissections and chemistry demonstrations. Thank you to everyone involved. Dr Marston

ABRSM Exams

We are delighted with the ABRSM exam results (music). LVC students achieved 4 distinctions and 8 merits. Mrs Jukes
